

MA Design Management Application

CV advice

Please provide a CV detailing your education, qualifications and any relevant work or voluntary experience.

If you have any web projects or other media that you would like to share, please include links in your CV.

English language requirements

If English is not your first language, please also provide your most recent English language test score. The IELTS test is one example of a test that UAL accepts. Your current test result must be less than 2 years old on the start date of your course.

Exemptions

If you meet all the requirements of one of the below categories, you don't need to take an English language test. Select each title below to read an explanation of each category:

Category 1 - English speaking countries

- You are a national of a majority English-speaking country. Majority English speaking countries are designated by UK Visas and Immigration. Check the list on GOV.UK: Student Visa.
- You have completed full secondary-level education in a majority English-speaking country. If you took only part of your secondary education in the UK or a majority English speaking country, you are not exempt from taking a test.

Category 2 - Permanent and legal UK resident

- You are a non-UK national who is permanently and legally resident in the UK.
- You have an existing immigration status that permits study and you will not require a student visa during your studies with us.
- You have completed full secondary-level education in the UK or in a majority English-speaking country. If you took only part of your secondary education in the UK or a majority English speaking country, you are not exempt from taking a test.

Category 3 - Degree taught in English

- You hold a qualification equal to a UK undergraduate degree or higher which was taught in English.
- Your proposed course of study at UAL will be at least RQF Level 6 (BA, MA or above).

Category 4 - UK English qualifications

If you completed one of the following English Language or Literature qualifications in the UK when you were 18 years old or younger, you may be exempt from taking an additional test:

- GCSE
- A-level
- Scottish National Qualification
- Scottish Higher
- Advanced Higher

These qualifications are valid for 3 years from the date of issue and must be valid on the start date of your course.