Advanced Diploma in Communication and Culture

Programme Code: MC015A

Application Code: 2290-MC015A

2910 7613

ug.comm@hkuspace.hku.hk

The programme aims to provide students with a multi-disciplinary approach to the study of communication and culture with an emphasis on media and cultural studies. More specifically, it trains the students to be critical consumers and ethical communicators through discussions that allow them to understand the power of both mediated and non-mediated communication in specific cultural contexts. The programme also addresses how existing and emerging forms of new media construct identities and shape lives by examining the relationship between communication and cultures.

- R Applicants shall:
1. have gained in the HKDSE Examination Level 2 or above in 5 subjects including English Language; OR
 2. have gained in the HKALE Grade E in 2 subjects including Use of English; OR
 3. have gained in the HKALE Grade E in Use of English, and have 2 years of relevant work experience in the communication or cultural industry; OR
 4. have gained in the HKCEE Grade E in 4 subjects, and Level 2 in English Language, and have 2 years of relevant work experience in the communication or cultural industry; OR
 5. have a diploma in communication studies, cultural studies, media studies or language studies from a recognised institution; OR
 6. be a mature student of at least 21 years of age by the start date of the programme and have at least 2 years of work experience.

Applicants must be able to demonstrate a good command of English, in particular in writing and reading. They may be required to attend an English written test if necessary. Applicants with other qualifications will be considered on individual merit.

(Note: Students who barely meet the English Language requirement of the programme (HKDSE Examination Level 2 in English Language, HKALE Grade E in Use of English, or HKCEE Grade E in English Language) are required to take the additional practical English writing course in the first trimester of the programme.)

Certificate for Module (Media and Popular Culture)

Programme Code: DP109A

Application Code: 2270-DP109A

2910 7613

pg.cad@hkuspace.hku.hk

This programme will focus on key debates on popular culture and cultural consumption in relation to the media. Issues of pleasure, politics, meaning and value will be raised in connection with a range of cultural forms. Situated historically in the twentieth century, the programme analyses the development of mass culture as a socio-economic form, and as a term emerging in relation to other media forms, such as Hollywood movies, television programmes, music, art, print and new media. A range of theoretical perspectives will inform the analysis. The consumption of popular culture is addressed through recent ethnographic and qualitative work on audiences.

Applicants should

In this mediated network society, use of media increasingly becomes an essential part of people's everyday life. The media are therefore strategically employed as pedagogical tool by the teaching profession. This programme purposes to critically review the historical and contemporary development of media as a pedagogical tool. By evaluating different forms of media content, it applies principles and concepts related to media literacy for instructional and teaching purposes. The programme equips students with media professional knowledge with a view to assessing teaching effectiveness of media literacy classes.

Certificate for Module (Law for Media and Creative Industries Practitioners)

Programme Code: MC041A

Application Code: 2285-MC041A

2910 7613

ug.comm@hkuspace.hku.hk

The programme is designed specifically for practitioners in the media and creative industries and the objective is to enhance their understanding of the legal issues that are relevant to their day-to-day activities and business operations. To create an immersive learning experience, a lively and engaging teaching approach will be adopted to encourage students to actively contribute to discussions throughout the programme. Real-case examples are used where appropriate to give students a practical understanding of how legal concepts apply in real-world scenarios. Students who have no prior training in law and are now working in the media and creative industries or running their own media platforms will benefit most from the programme.

- R Applicants shall
- have gained in the HKALE Grade E in 2 AL subjects; or
 - have gained in the HKDSE Examination Level 2 in 5 subjects including English Language; or
 - be aged 21 and above and with 3 years relevant work experience.
- Applicants with other qualifications will be considered on individual merit.
